MIMI GREENMAN
52-06 Bowne Street
Flushing, N.Y. 11355

Dear Archie,

I love animals. I have a dog. His name is Reggie. He is a Blue Merle Collie. I love him very much. We had him ever since he was four months old. Now he is five years old. He sleeps in my room every night. When I tickle him, believe it or not, he laughs. When I get home from school I take him in my back yard and play with him. Reggie loves to look out of the window and bark at everyone passing by. At night while he is sleeping he snores. While I read my "Archie" comics, he looks at me as if he wants me to read the comics to him. I do and he lies down in front of me and listens. He knows lots of tricks, such as sitting up, turning over and many others. He is very playful and loves to shake up old shoes and rag dolls we give him. He doesn't like dog food and we have to give him our human food. When I watch TV he sits next to me and watches the shows too. He loves to go for rides in our car. He is a very good dog, but he doesn't know he's a dog. He thinks he's a boy. On Sundays we call him Reginald since his full name is Reginald Jonathon Greenman. He is a very good little brother.

DEBBIE CIECIERKSI

Dear Archie,

Recently my mother got a new kitchen blender and, of course, I was just dying to try it out. And finally the chance came. One afternoon my mom was going to make cole slaw, and since she was already busy with the wash, I volunteered to do the job. So, with her permission I set out to putting the water and cabbage in the blender to mix. But as they say "curiosity killed the cat," mine almost killed me.

You see, while the ingredients were mixing I decided to take the lid off and see what it all looked like while it was mixing. And believe me that really was a mistake! Cause before I knew it I had wall to wall chopped cabbage and water on the floor, on the table, on the ceiling—you name it, it was there. But I did have one consolation, someone got to eat my cole slaw after all. You see, my dog had a picnic with the portion of cabbage that landed on the floor!

Dear Archie,

One year for our vacation I went to San Francisco.

Did you know it was built on seven hills? A friend of ours took us up and down these hills. Boy, what fun! Since there are so many hills the cars there have very good brakes.

We went across the Golden Gate Bridge. This bridge is where the Pacific Ocean and San Francisco Bay meet.

They have many large skyscrapers there. From one, I saw Alcatraz. Alcatraz was a jail.

The houses there are pastel colored. Pink, light blue, and yellow.

They also have cable cars there. They go up and down the hills.

I'm only sorry my stay was so short!

KANGAROOS

Dear Archie,

The great kangaroos are the largest of the pouched animals called marsupials. The kangaroos are plant-eating animals and usually graze in large groups called mobs. Their teeth are small and are used for cutting and grinding plant food. They have big muscular tails and powerful hind legs.

Kangaroos usually are gentle, timid animals but if bothered they are fierce fighters.
